The new Compliance Manual has been published!

The Georgia Department of Community Affairs announces the publication of the LIHTC & HOME Compliance Manual for immediate use. You can access the manual from our website here, and at the link below. DCA will take comments on it year-round at the following link: Public Input

External partners can expect a virtual training session on the new manual forthcoming. An announcement will be made via the blast. Also, DCA staff will speak on key topics of the new compliance manual at the Georgia SAHMA (Southeastern Affordable Housing Management Association) conference on February 15, 2023.
