Georgia Department of Community Affairs
60 Executive Park South
Atlanta, Georgia 30329-2231
404-679-4940
The Department of Community Affairs touches the lives of millions of Georgians, most often by working with local governments, authorities, other state agencies, and non-profit organizations. We are proud to be part of the team helping Governor Deal meet his objective of creating jobs across the state. We provide resources and technical assistance to help communities prepare for economic development opportunities, and to create workforce housing. Our team members have a long history of working with local leaders to develop solutions to community issues, and helping create opportunities for communities to succeed in growing jobs.

We look forward to working with you as you build the communities you envision: from providing technical expertise to helping you access this agency’s resources.

—Commissioner Camila Knowles

Resources and Assistance

- Funding: spending local, state and/or federal funds to build or create something the community has deemed important; sidewalks, roads, parks, public buildings, water and sewer facilities, housing choices or economic development projects.

- Incentives: providing ways to make it easier for the private sector to invest and fill a need that the community has deemed important, but cannot complete with available means. Tax credits, low-interest rate mortgages and first time homebuyer down-payment assistance programs are in this category.

- Partnerships: a jurisdiction can work with a private for-profit or non-profit entity, a quasi-governmental agency, or another government entity to achieve a goal. Partnering to build or rehabilitate low to moderate-income housing is one example of this type of partnership, as local governments work with developers to make the benefits of the Low Income Housing Tax Credit (an incentive) work for everyone.

- Technical Assistance: The Department employs experts in many different fields, including financing, planning, research, citizen engagement, and governance. Our staff can help local governments consider and select appropriate strategies to help them meet their local goals.
DCA offers a variety of resources, as well as the technical assistance to use those resources for their maximum benefit. Some are easier to use than others, but all of them can be effective when used appropriately and in concert with each other. Most major improvements that local governments undertake use multiple resources.

This guide is organized by category to help users find what they are looking for most easily: Community Development, Community Finance, and Housing. Within each of these categories we’ve provided an overview of the four types of resources with which we can help.

Getting Started
The Community Services Division Regional Managers are available to discuss a community’s needs and options, and are a great resource for accessing, organizing and managing the various types of technical and financial assistance available through DCA. These experienced team members are located throughout the state’s twelve service delivery regions, and can help communities decide which tools are best to address its particular needs. They also maintain a network of regional and statewide partners that can provide additional assistance to complement what DCA offers, and can bring those resources to communities as well.

DCA Regional Managers also coordinate and facilitate many of the agency’s special initiatives, including the Georgia Academy for Economic Development, the Georgia Initiative for Community Housing, Main Street™ assistance and others.

Contact information for the Regional Representative in your region is located on the back cover, and we look forward to hearing from you.

The Georgia Department of Community Affairs has served as an advocate for our state’s communities since 1977. After more than three decades, DCA’s programs and staff continue to provide critical support for community development, housing, and quality of life initiatives throughout the state, to communities large and small, urban and rural. These efforts help fulfill our mission:

Partnering with communities to help create a climate of success for Georgia’s families and businesses.

At the close of Fiscal Year 2014, DCA had:

- Managed almost $400 million in state and federal funding for Georgia’s communities.

- Leveraged $12.5 million in EDGE and REBA state funds to generate $1 billion in private investment, creating 6,866 new jobs and retaining 1,659 jobs in 18 Georgia locations.

- Maintained an AAA Bond rating for the Georgia Housing Finance Authority. GHFA is one of only 13 state housing agencies in the nation to achieve and maintain this recognition for sound management & investment practices.

- Served more than 15,000 Georgia families through the Housing Choice Voucher Program—adding more than $96 million to Georgia’s economy each year through direct payments to private landlords.

- Helped Georgia Main Street communities add 3,583 net new jobs and 593 net new businesses in 96 cities around the state, while adding 19 start-up communities to the program – the largest class of new cities in a single year for any of the 50 states.

- Had assisted more than 5,400 individuals and families in 124 Georgia counties through the HomeSafe Georgia program since 2011, committing more than $110 million in U.S. Treasury funding to help keep unemployed/under-employed homeowners from foreclosure. For FY14, these figures reflect a 32% increase in applications, a 42% increase in approvals, and a 90% increase in funds paid over FY13.
