

COMMUNITY HOUSING DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION (CHDO)
BOARD MEMBER CERTIFICATION – EXHIBIT A

A Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO) must be accountable to the low-income residents of its service area by maintaining at least one-third of its governing body members as low-income community representatives. A governing body member can be qualified as a low-income community representative in any one of the following three ways:

1. Being a member of low-income household;
2. Residing in a low income census tract or block group;
3. Appointment to the governing body through election by members of another organization consisting exclusively of residents of a low-income neighborhood.

Public representatives cannot be qualified as low-income representatives, even if they meet the qualifying criteria.

Public representatives include individuals elected, appointed, or employed by the State or an instrumentality of the State.

Select Only One

Public Official or Employee

I currently hold a publicly elected office; am employed by a state or an instrumentality of the state; or serve on any commission, board or other regulatory body by appointment of an elected official or other political body.

Member of Low-Income Household

I am a member of a household of _____ persons that has a combined total expected income for 200____, which is less than 80% of the area median income for a household of this size.

Resident of Low Income Area

I reside in census tract/block group number _____ which in the 2000 census, has at least 51% of its households with incomes less than 80% of the area median income.

Elected Representative of Low-Income Group

I am elected by the membership of an organization whose membership is open to all residents of a defined neighborhood in which the 2000 census shows that more than 50% of the households have incomes less than 80% of the area median income, and my position on our governing body is primarily as a representative of that neighborhood group. The group name is: _____ and the census tract/block group numbers served by the neighborhood group are: _____

Not a Low Income Representative

	TOTAL

- Public representatives cannot be qualified as low-income representatives, even if they meet the qualifying criteria. No more than 1/3 of the Board Members may be Public Officials.
- The one-third low-income resident and public official representations are based upon the total maximum number of board members identified in the by-laws. Vacancies in the board membership do not reduce these requirements.
