Introduction

Purpose
The development of a meaningful Comprehensive Plan begins with the insightful input of a community’s citizens, government officials and staff addressing the issues of today, the opportunities of tomorrow and the steps necessary to effectuate positive change over the next twenty (20) years. The Town of Waverly Hall’s Community Participation Program was designed to encourage as much public participation, open dialogue and communication as possible; in order to achieve a Community Plan consensus that translates into better government decisions and greater community agreement with those decisions.

State Comprehensive Plan Requirements
The Town of Waverly Hall is required by state law to complete its’ Comprehensive Plan Update by June 30, 2009. The plan will be prepared in accordance with the Intermediate Planning Level Local Planning Requirements from the Georgia Department of Community Affairs (DCA), effective May 1, 2005.

Requirements for Creating a Successful Comprehensive Plan
The major challenge in developing a successful plan for the Town of Waverly Hall is convincing its’ citizens that the Comprehensive Plan belongs to each and every citizen of the Town of Waverly Hall and that broad based public participation is necessary to obtain citizen ownership of the plan. It is also necessary to educate plan participants that the plan should represent a balance of community interest defined by a give and take process that seeks local opinion and knowledge on planning issues. The end result of which creates community consensus (a vision) in regards to future development policies and practices. Successful communities create a vision, agree upon a course of action to achieve the vision, and take the steps necessary to implement the vision.

Identification of Waverly Hall Stakeholders
The following is a list of the Town of Waverly Hall’s stakeholders. A “stakeholder” is considered to be someone who has a vested interest in a process, an organization, community, agency, etc, and any result of process adoption or changes and updates to policy. Stakeholders are an integral part of the community planning process, and the Community Participation Program should include tools to identify and engage representatives who have a present or future stake in the community. Key stakeholders include the community residents representing a diverse range of backgrounds and interests, residents, specifically those that have been historically left out of the decision making process, like members of low-income communities, immigrant communities, and ethnic and minority groups, as well as business and industry leaders, civic leaders, the development community, real estate professionals, media representatives, city and county staff, and elected officials. Other key stakeholders include Agriculture and forestry interests, Banks, Churches and church leaders, Civic clubs, Students, Tourism officials, service organizations, and military leaders and members of the military with vested interest in the community. Local groups, such as Callaway Gardens, local property owners, local business owners, and the Georgia Conservancy have also been identified as key stakeholders.

Stakeholders are vital to the process and create and are affected by change. Participation of these groups can help foster community understanding and support for the Comprehensive Plan document and provide fuel for the implementation of the plan.

Since the list can grow and more organizations and interested parties identified throughout the process there will be names and interested parties not included in this list.

In order to assure all interested parties have a voice in the process, it may be found that a steering committee be organized. If this becomes the case, their names will be included as a separate group.

The following is a list of the Town of Waverly Hall Stakeholders. The list has been reviewed by the Town Clerk and the Town of Waverly Hall’s Council.

Citizen Notification

Various media will be used to get citizens involved in the planning process. Civic leaders and civic groups, as well as churches, will be contacted to assist in getting the word out regarding citizen involvement opportunities. Press releases, posters and announcements at public meetings will be used to notify the public about upcoming meetings and to generate public interest. Notices will be attached to all utility bills to include public services, DFCS, landowners, ethnic and minority groups, and low-income groups.

Participation Techniques

Public Hearings

The State of Georgia Rules and Regulations for Local Comprehensive Planning requires that two (2) public hearings be held in association with the development of a Comprehensive Plan. The first public hearing was held to inform the public that the planning process is underway and to go over the draft Community Assessment and Public Participation Program. The public hearing was held January 15, 2009 from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at Waverly Hall Town Hall. The public hearing attendees were briefed on the plan’s timeline (Vision Meeting, Final Review Meeting and the Final Public Hearing Meeting) and how they can help the planning process. Attendees will also be given an opportunity to comment on the Public Participation Plan and Community Assessment.
Vision Meeting

A meeting to review a general Vision Statement created for the Town of Waverly Hall’s Comprehensive Plan during the 2004/2005 planning process is scheduled for October 15, 2009 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at the Waverly Hall’s Town Hall. Attendees will be briefed on what a Vision Statement is and the elements of a good vision statement. The meeting has two (2) primary goals:

1. Review the existing general Vision Statement and modify, if necessary.
2. Review/survey participants about the Town of Waverly Halls’ issues and opportunities.

In order to achieve the above goals, a S.W.O.T. (Strength, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats) Analysis will be conducted. Issues and Opportunities for the planning period will be discussed. Quality of life issues and Quality Community Objectives will be reviewed as well as major steps necessary to achieve desired results. Measures that can be taken to identify future success will be developed.

Future Development Charrette

The Future Development Map Charrette/Design Meeting is tentatively scheduled, for October 22, 2009 at the Town of Waverly Hall’s Town Hall. The meeting will start with a review of the S.W.O.T and general vision statement developed at the previous meeting. Next will be the review of the draft Character Area Map identified in the Community Assessment. The majority of the meeting time will be used to modify the draft Character Areas, create a vision for each character area, implementation measures/strategies for each character area in an effort to create a Future Development Map, based on participant input.

Final Review Meeting

A Final Review Meeting is tentatively scheduled on October 29, 2009. The purpose of the meeting will be to allow citizens to review and comment on the Community Agenda. All draft documents and maps will be available for review. Staff will be positioned at various stations to receive comments. The meeting is scheduled for two (2) hours and will take place at Waverly Hall’s Town Hall from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Public Hearing/ Transmittal/ Adoption Process

On November 2, 2009, a draft Community Agenda will be presented at a second and final public hearing during a regularly scheduled Waverly Hall Town Council meeting. The Community Agenda will be transmitted to the River Valley Regional Commission (RVRC) for review on November 3, 2009. After the RVRC and Georgia Department of Community Affairs review the Community Agenda, the final draft will be presented to the Town of Waverly Hall’s Town Council at a regularly scheduled meeting for adoption December 7, 2009.
